SAILING THE SOUNDS

The time must come
when this coast will be a place of resort for those who really wish to visit the seaside...
where the land meets
the brine.

Henry David Thoreau

American naturalist, essayist, and philosopher, from his book Cape Cod, 1865.

Welcome to SKY

Thoreau saw it coming: long before the world's finest yachts gathered in these sounds, New England's coast was destined to become the ultimate sanctuary for those drawn to the sea.

This season, that's us—which suits our superyacht just fine. She's classic Americana updated for the modern charterer, so we're keeping things in theme.

New England is a remarkable destination, combining that old-world maritime charm with its beloved farm-to-table—or ocean-to-table, as yachts would have it—gastronomy.

This region is famous for it: Nantucket Bay's scallops are fat and world famous; over in Martha's Vineyard, the tiny fishing village of Menemsha is legendary for sweet, plump steamed lobster eaten right off the dock, while Cuttyhunk Harbor's local shellfish farmers hand-deliver briny oysters and clams, clean-shucked and dripping cool saltwater right over the deck. And that's all before we get to dessert: spicy-sweet cinnamon-apple fritters are a local staple, best eaten piping hot.

You'll want for nothing while here.

Our highlights are outlined in the pages following, but remember: the sky's the limit.

We can't wait to have you on board.

The NEW ENGLAND CIRCUIT

Long before European contact, the land we now know as New England was a well managed, prosperous place inhabited by the Algonquin-speaking nations—specifically the Wampahoag in Martha’s Vineyard, Nantucket, Cape Cod, and the Elizabeth Islands; and the Narragansett people around Rhode Island Sound. Many of these places take their names from Algonquin: Cuttyhunk comes from the Wampanoag word Poocutohhunkunnoh, meaning ‘land’s end’; Nantucket from Nantockett, meaning ‘faraway island.’

These first nations were master mariners and stewards of their waters, practicing controlled harvests across rich oyster beds, clam flats, and seasonal fish runs to ensure populations remained dense year after year. Their seaworthy mishoonash—hand-carved dugout canoes—could carry up to 40 people, hauling their heavy ocean catches back to shore. The descendants of these first peoples still reside here, preserving and carrying forward their ancestors’ traditions.

The 17th century brought the first English arrivals, first landing on Cuttyhunk in 1602 before the famous Mayflower established Plymouth in Cape Cod Bay in 1620. Diplomatic alliances with these local tribes sustained the early settlements; by 1639, religious dissidents fleeing Massachusetts rule established Newport.

By the mid-18th century, New England had grown into one of the wealthiest regions, its economy fuelled by trade, rum, and the golden age of whaling. Newport and Nantucket were the epicentres of this, while across Cape Cod Bay, salt-making industries grew in parallel with—unsurprisingly—Atlantic cod industries.

This immense wealth laid the groundwork for America’s Gilded Age. By the late 19th century, industrial dynasties—including the Vanderbilts, Astors, Belmonts, and Berwinds—had established Newport as America’s premier summer resort, commissioning palatial 70-room marble estates along Bellevue Avenue. Pleasure sailing—yachting—flourished; the first recorded yacht sailed into Newport Harbor in 1835, returning regularly each year. This era would later serve as the aesthetic inspiration for Baz Luhrmann’s film adaptation of The Great Gatsby. Today, Newport is the sailing capital of the world, continuing New England’s maritime tradition, with Martha’s Vineyard, Nantucket, Cuttyhunk, and Cape Cod on any well-respected sailor’s bucket list. And SKY is the perfect yacht for it.

Classic Americana updated for the modern charterer, she brings a rare blend of timeless lines and relaxed luxury. Equipped with every modern comfort without losing her seafaring soul, SKY turns a voyage across these historic sounds into an unforgettable experience, allowing you to navigate New England’s storied waters in style.

NEWPORT

RHODE ISLAND

Guarding the entrance to Narragansett Bay, Newport welcomes you directly into the beating heart of American yachting. Begin your stay with a private morning stroll along the dramatic Cliff Walk—where oceanfront Gilded Age estates meet the crashing Atlantic below—or step inside

The Breakers, the grandest of the 19th-century Vanderbilts' summer palaces, and reportedly a favourite of JFK and Jackie Kennedy. Down on the harbour, historic wharves host modern superyachts alongside classic 12-metre racing vessels, while the historic New York Yacht Club at Harbor Court anchors the skyline. As twilight settles over the bay, enjoy sunset champagne on the oceanfront lawn at Castle Hill Inn, followed by an elevated, hyper-local sea-to-table tasting menu overlooking the water.

BLOCK

RHODE ISLAND

Dropping anchor off Rhode Island's southern shore, Block Island—known natively as Manisses, or 'island of the little god'—offers a blend of dramatic, windswept coastline and laid-back summer elegance. Spend the morning tendering ashore to explore the dramatic Mohegan Bluffs, where sheer clay cliffs drop straight into the Atlantic below, offering sweeping views past the Victorian-era Southeast Lighthouse.

In the afternoon, wander through the historic Victorian village of Old Harbor, or take SKY's tenders to explore the quiet, pristine saltwater lagoons of Great Salt Pond. As evening approaches, enjoy a relaxed cocktail on deck while the sunset illuminates the bluffs, before your chef serves a menu showcasing locally caught sea bass and crisp coastal greens gathered from nearby island farms.

Newport to Block Island: 25 nautical miles
Time to destination: 2 hours

DAY 03

MARTHA'S VINEYARD

MASSACHUSETTS

Tender ashore at Edgartown, where 19th-century whaling captains' houses—adorned with manicured hydrangeas and pristine white picket fences—line the historic streets. Explore the boutique enclaves along Water Street or arrange an afternoon helicopter tour over the island's southwestern tip to witness the striking, multicoloured clay bluffs of Aquinnah, a sacred site to the Wampanoag nation. As late afternoon approaches, cruise west toward the island's working heart: the picturesque fishing harbour of Menemsha. Anchor in the lee of the harbour as the sun begins to dip over the Atlantic.

Here, local lobstermen haul the day's fresh catch straight to the docks, setting the stage for an unpretentious feast of sweet, plump steamed lobster and local clam chowder served right on deck, accompanied by rare vintages from SKY's cellar while the sky turns crimson.

Block Island to Martha's Vineyard: 45 nautical miles
Time to destination: 6 hours

DAY 04

CAPE COD

MASSACHUSETTS

Curving 65 miles out into the Atlantic, Cape Cod is all wind-carved dunes and historic salt-making marshes. Cruise north into Chatham Roads on the Cape’s elbow, where wild seal colonies haul out on shifting sandbars and historic shingle-style cottages overlook the Atlantic breaking over Monomoy Island. Tender into Chatham for a private morning stroll past 18th-century sea captains’ homes and the historic Chatham Lighthouse, or set out on a private guided whale-watching excursion to the nutrient-rich feeding grounds of Stellwagen Bank. For the afternoon, drop anchor off the pristine, secluded beaches of Provincetown Harbor at the Cape’s tip—where the Mayflower made its very first landfall. Here, rugged dune trails meet a vibrant, world-class art colony. Return to SKY for a late-afternoon treat of piping-hot, locally made cinnamon-apple fritters served on the sundeck as classic wooden schooners cross the harbour, before enjoying a candlelit sea-to-table dinner featuring line-caught Atlantic cod and wild-harvested Cape shellfish.

Martha’s Vineyard to Cape Cod: 50 nautical miles
Time to destination: 6 hours

DAY 05

NANTUCKET

MASSACHUSETTS

Floating nearly 30 miles out into the open Atlantic, Nantucket is a storied enclave of cobblestone streets, gas-lit lanterns, and weathered cedar-shingled mansions. Step ashore at Straight Wharf for a private tour of the Whaling Museum, where rich maritime artefacts and 19th-century architecture reveal the source of the island's immense historical wealth. Spend the afternoon exploring the rose-clad cottages of Siasconset, or cruise out towards Great Point Lighthouse and the pristine, dune-backed beaches of Madaket. As twilight approaches, anchor in the calm, protected waters of Nantucket Harbor.

Here, the island's world-famous, sweet bay scallops take centre stage, served on deck alongside vintage Champagne as the sun dips below the horizon, delivering a quintessentially elegant evening at sea.

Cape Cod to Nantucket: 68 nautical miles
Time to destination: 6 hours

DAY 06

CUTTYHUNK ISLAND

MASSACHUSETTS

Lying at the outermost edge of the Elizabeth Islands chain, Cuttyhunk offers an untamed, serene contrast to the grander ports of New England. With virtually no cars and a tiny year-round population, this tranquil island feels entirely preserved in time. Spend a quiet morning cruising past the granite bluffs of the surrounding archipelago, or tender into the village to walk up to Lookout Hill for sweeping 360-degree views of Vineyard Sound and Buzzards Bay.

The highlight of your anchor here arrives right at your stern: local shellfish farmers pull up alongside SKY in their skiffs to deliver briny oysters and hard-shell clams directly from the harbour's crystal-clear waters. Shucked fresh on deck and served icy cold over raw-bar platters as the sun sets over the island's quiet inlet—an unpretentious luxury.

Nantucket to Cuttyhunk Island: 40 nautical miles

Time to destination: 6 hours

RHODE ISLAND

Your voyage comes full circle as SKY makes her final approach into Narragansett Bay, the granite battlements of Fort Adams welcoming you back into Newport's grand harbour. Use your final day to experience the city's lively cultural scene: tour the International Tennis Hall of Fame, browse the fine art galleries along Bellevue Avenue, or enjoy one last exhilarating sunset cruise past Castle Hill Lighthouse from SKY's own decks.

As night falls, celebrate the conclusion of your charter with a farewell dinner on board. Against a backdrop of twinkling harbour lights and gentle Atlantic breezes, enjoy a multi-course finale celebrating the finest regional ingredients gathered along your journey.

Cuttyhunk Island to Newport: 25 nautical miles
Time to destination: 3 hours
